13th March, 2023

Dear Shri Kwatraji,

As you may be aware, entries for Prime Minister's Award for Yoga 2023 for Outstanding Contribution towards the Development and Promotion of Yoga at National and International Levels has been made live on MyGov Portal.

These awards were announced on June 21st, 2016 i.e., on the occasion of the Second International Day of Yoga (IDY), by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India. Applications for the Awards are invited every year since 2017, except in 2020 due to onset of Pandemic of COVID-19. Since last two years, applications have been received in digital mode through MyGov portal. This year also, the entries are invited through the MyGov portal from 1st March 2023 to 31st March, 2023. The portal can be reached through the following link:

<https://innovateindia.mygov.in/pm-yoga-awards-2023/>

The Guidelines of the Awards are also available in the above link. For wider publicity, the guidelines and the link have been published in the websites and Social Media handles of this Ministry.

In order to reach to the wider international community, it is requested to circulate the guidelines among the Indian Missions across the globe. Social Media managers of Indian Missions/ ICCR/ other MEA Offices may also be advised to publicize the same through their handles. Further, all may be requested to follow Yoga portal (<https://yoga.ayush.gov.in/>) for all IDY 2023 related activities and competitions including discussions, surveys, jingle, quiz etc.

For any assistance, Shri Vikram Singh, Director, Ministry of Ayush may be contacted (Email: vikramsingh-cea@gov.in, phone- 011-24653863).

With regards,

Yours Sincerely,

(Rajesh Kotecha)
